

BIJOU THEATRE

TODAY'S PROGRAM

The Battle of Louvain . . . Strand
This war series contains actual fighting scenes from the great battle that took place soon after the war began in Europe. Don't fail to see this wonderful picture of modern warfare.

The Squatter Elclair
3 reel western Mexican drama. It is a romance of the real modern cattle ranch of today. Featuring Edna Payne and Bob Frazier.

Hello Mabel Keystone
One of those screaming comedys that make you laugh from start to finish, featuring Mabel Normand.

Coming tomorrow "The Trey O'Hearts" series no. 8.

Coming Friday "another Keystone Comedy and the Country Store Bigger and better than ever.

Daily program selected from the best Universal and Mutual movies.

All Negroes

Are Not Fools, Judging By Slick Skin Game Pulled Off in Anderson Yesterday.

One of the cleverest "stunts" pulled off in Anderson in many moons took place yesterday and last night. Lee Davis, head waiter at the Chiquita hotel was poorer by $15 than he was a few hours before. Lee was approached by a negro he had known for several days. The negro was well dressed and sported a large gold watch, a chain to match and a good looking diamond. The negro proceeded to give Lee a hard-luck tale about relatives being at the point of death in Macon, Ga. He then asked the Anderson negro for a loan of $15, offering to give the diamond ring as security. Lee was a little dubious of the scheme and carried the diamond to Walter H. Keese and company where he was assured that the ring was worth at least $50 or possibly $75. Reassured by this Lee went back to the negro and let him have the $15. The other negro then asked for the ring, saying that he wanted to tighten one of the brackets so that the stone would not lose out. He straightway handed it back, thereafter disappearing.

Shortly after he got the ring Lee began to get suspicious of the color of the ring and carried it back to Mr. Keese for further examination. It was then found that the two rings had been switched and that the ring Lee then had was paste.

Search was begun by the police for the missing negro and it was found that he had checked his baggage to Greenwood but where he took his own person is as yet unsolved.

Millions of Wood Screws Used.
It has been estimated that 4,708,000, 000 wood screws are used in the United States each year.

Don't growl about the things that don't go right—but don't be satisfied with something that can be done better.

Save a

$1
2

FOR NOV. 12th

On Thursday of next week, Nov. 12th, the Ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church will serve a

"TURKEY DINNER"

in a vacant storeroom next to Geisberg Bros.

P. S.

The $1-2 includes Plum Pudding and Coffee.

ANOTHER CONVICTION AGAINST L. R. MYERS

HAS DEFENDANT SKIPPED THE TOWN?

THAT IS REPORT

Trial Heard Yesterday Was in Absence of Defendant But Court Goes On.

Increased interest was manifested locally in the third trial of Lewis R. Myers, held at the city court yesterday afternoon, because of the report variously circulated throughout the city, that Mr. Myers had left town. Whether this is true or not has not been substantiated. He was charged with selling on the afternoon of Oct. 24, alcoholic liquors to M. C. Baxter, an Atlanta detective.

He was convicted. The jury remained out only a few minutes and following their verdict, A. H. Dagnall, attorney for the defendant, gave notice of appeal. As in the former cases against Mr. Myers, his attorney objected to the jurors not being placed upon their voir dire and that body having been selected before he exhausted his preemptory challenges. He also demurred to the jurisdiction of the court, which was overruled.

Dobbins Excused.
One of the developments of the case was the placing upon his voir dire by the city attorney of the juror J. W. Dobbins, who testified on the direct examination by Attorney Sullivan that he had expressed an opinion about the matter and he stated that his opinion could not be changed. When questioned by Mr. Dagnall he, however, stated that if he were chosen he would render an honest opinion. The court excused him and Mr. Dagnall objected to the same and had this fact recorded.

The first witness for the city was M. C. Baxter, who testified that he was in the employ of the city of Anderson as a detective and that he had bought beer from Lewis R. Myers on the morning and afternoon of October 24, paying 20 cents per bottle for same; that Mr. Myers' place is located over Mr. Williford's store on South Main street; he said that the beer was ice cold. On cross examination he testified that Mr. Jones, his partner, was also a detective and when asked if the statement made by Mr. Jones to Mr. Meyers, when he (Baxter) was introduced to Mr. Meyers, saying, "he is a friend of mine and all right" was a false statement. He said that it was not. Asked if he did not consider that Mr. Jones was deliberately deceiving Mr. Myers in so introducing him, maintained that he did not think he was. Stated that he drank whiskey frequently and had been drunk. Asked if he did not have to drink "by his little lonesome" except as regarded Mr. Jones, replied "yes."

L. W. Jones, the next witness, testified that he had been introduced to Mr. Myers by Earl Thomas. Asked if he did not deliberately deceive Mr. Myers and tell a lie when he introduced Mr. Baxter to him (Myers) witness hesitated, finally saying that he did not look at it that way. His testimony otherwise corroborated that of Baxter. Asked if he would not tell a lie in the detective business, in order to catch a blind tiger, said "No sir, I would not." Attorney Dagnall of the defense then said "You can take some advice from me, young man, you will quit the detective business right now, if you look at it that way."

Capt. O. E. Bell of the police department was the next witness. He described the arrangement of Myers' place and referred to the raid of same on the night of October 25. He drew a sketch on a piece of paper and explained the arrangement of the place by the use of same. Asked on cross examination if he found any liquor, said no. Asked if he found anything there at all, except that in a locker, said no. Asked if he found anything in the locker, fit to drink, said no. Said that he had a search warrant when he entered the place.

Earle Thomas, the next witness, said that he introduced Mr. Jones to Mr. Myers on the night of October 23 and that Mr. Myers place was located over Mr. Williford's grocery store. Asked how he introduced Jones, said "Mr. Myers, Mr. Jones." Asked on cross examination if he thought as much of Mr. Jones now as he did two weeks ago, answered, amid the laughter of the court room, "No sir."

The city here rested its case and the defendant offered no testimony. Mr. Sullivan argued the case along the usual lines, delivering an eloquent plea for the defense was one of the best ever heard in Anderson, was logically gotten together, illustrated by readings from several law books, citing numerous cases, on the question of former jeopardy and contending that if the defendant was again convicted, he would in effect have been twice convicted for the same offense, in violation of the English common law of more than 1,000 years duration and also in absolute violation of the constitution of the United States and of the State of South Carolina. He further illustrated his arguments concisely with regard to a similar state of fact in other crimes, from the standpoint of former jeopardy.

Close of Case.
Mr. Dagnall dramatically closed his argument with a plea for justice, mattering not who the defendant was, nor with what he was charged. He stated that no man could be criticized for defending any person accused of crime; that mere accusation of crime was not crime and that if the day ever came to pass in South Carolina when a man was charged with defending a person simply charged with crime, that it would indeed be a bad day for the State.

At no time during the trial was the defendant present and the rumor that he has fled the city is very persistent, although many discount it.

Further charges against Myers will be taken up again this morning, regardless of whether or not the defendant is present in person.

REPUBLICANS MAKE GAINS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY

(Continued From First Page.)

expected. Senator Shively's vote began to pick up at a late hour and administration leaders were claiming his reelection.

In Colorado Senator Charles W. Thomas, Democrat, was being hard pressed for the seat of Joseph L. Bristow, Republican candidate.

The triumph of Senator Penrose in Pennsylvania over A. Mitchell Palmer, Democrat, who was one of the original supporters of Woodrow Wilson, and Gifford Pinchot, Progressive, was overwhelmingly. The Senatorial fight in Kansas also was uncertain, according to early returns. Charles Curtis, former Republican Senator, Congressman George A. Neely, Democrat, and Representative Victor Murdock, Progressive, engaged in a spirited contest for the seat of Joseph L. Bristow. Senators elected as a result of hard battles were Frank B. Brandegee, Republican of Connecticut, opposed by Governor Simeon E. Baldwin; Albert B. Cummins, Republican, of Iowa, who defeated Representative Maurice Connolly; John Smith, Democrat of Maryland; William J. Stone, Democrat of Missouri; Jacob H. Gallinger, Republican of New Hampshire, who was opposed by Representative E. B. Stevens.

Democratic senators in the South were re-elected without difficulty, new Senators from Southern States chosen being: Representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama and Representative Thomas W. Hardwick of Georgia. Former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, Democrat, of Kentucky was chosen for the long term.

Francis E. McGovern, Republican, was elected, according to the early returns, to succeed Senator Stephen D. Dill, Republican of Wisconsin.

The triumph of former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Republican, over Frank T. O'Hair for representative in the 18th Illinois district, seemed certain on the early returns. Other Illinois Republicans who were turned out of the house in the last Democratic landslide who will be returned to Congress are William B. McKinley, Charles E. Fuller and John A. Sterling.

Republicans also made gains in New York, Oscar W. Swift defeating Representative James H. O'Brien in the ninth district; Rollin H. Sanford defeating Representative Peter G. Teneyck; Walter W. Magee succeeding to the seat of Representative John R. Clancy, while R. L. Haskell, Republican, was elected in the tenth district.

The defeat of Representative Charles A. Korbly, Democrat, of Indiana, by Merrill Moores also marked the general trend of Republican gains throughout the country.

Serenio E. Payne, Republican of New York, one of the widest members of the house in point of service, was re-elected without difficulty. Election of state officers resulted in a few turnovers. In New York Governor Glynn, the Democratic candidate for reelection, was defeated by District Attorney Whitman, Republican. Frederick W. Davenport, progressive nominee, in support of whose candidacy Ex-President Roosevelt devoted most of the campaign, was left far in the rear, his vote being exceeded by that of William Sulzer, who was deposed as governor last year.

In Tennessee there also was a change in party control when Governor Ben W. Hooper, the Republican incumbent, was defeated by Thomas C. Rye, Democrat.

In Pennsylvania, where occurred one of the excited campaigns, Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican, early took a long lead over Vance McCormick, Democratic candidate for governor, who was endorsed by the Progressives.

In Ohio the race for governor between James M. Cox, Democratic incumbent, and Frank B. Willis, Republican, was close, with Governor Cox in the lead on early returns.

Defeat of woman suffrage in Missouri and North Dakota was indicated. Meagre returns from California showed Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Progressive, leading Fredericks, Republican, and Curtis, Democrat, by a slight margin. The senatorial situation also was in doubt. Representative Joseph R. Knowland, Republican, James D. Phelan, Democrat, and Francis J. Heney, Progressive all showing strength.

In Ohio the prohibition issue was uppermost. In Cleveland and Dayton the "wet" were victorious by large majorities.

New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 3.—President Wilson's home congressional district, the fourth of New Jersey, today elected Elijah C. Hutchinson, Republican, to succeed Congressman Allan B. Walsh, Democrat, by about 2,400 plurality.

Meager returns indicate strong Republican gains throughout the State and the Democrats probably will have more than four or five of the twelve congressmen. In the present delegation are ten Democrats. The Democrats probably will retain their majority in the State senate, but apparently have lost control of the assembly.

Ohio Stays Wet and the Women Can't Vote.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—The election of Warren G. Harding, Republican, to succeed Theodore E. Burton, Republican, in the United States Senate; an extremely close race between Governor James M. Cox, Democrat, and Frank B. Willis, Republican, for governor; the decisive defeat of both the woman's suffrage and the prohibition amendments and the probable passage of the "home rule" amendment, an act alleged to favor the "wet" interests, is the result thus far indicated in the Ohio election today. The gubernatorial contest probably will not be decided until the final precincts are tabulated.

Connecticut Back to Republicans.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3.—Connecticut returned to the Republican fold today. Frank B. Brandegee was re-elected United States Senator over Governor Simeon E. Baldwin by a safe majority. With the vote nearly all counted indications pointed to election of a solid Republican congressional delegation.

The Progressives with nearly 35,000 votes last year, polled only a trifling more than 5,000 today. Judge Marcus H. Holcomb, Republican, was elected governor by a majority of about 10,000. The Senate and House will be Republican.

Two Surprises in Indiana.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 3.—There were two surprises in the Indiana election today, the unexpected strength of Hugh Miller, Republican candidate for Senator, and the poor showing of the Progressive candidate.

Returns seemed to indicate Senator Shively would be re-elected. Merrill Moores, Republican, classmate of former President Taft, classmate of former Congressman Charles Korbly in this, the seventh district.

The outcome of the State ticket is in doubt.

Progressives in California.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Scattered returns indicate a landslide to Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Progressive candidate for reelection over John D. Frederick, Republican and John D. Curtin, Democrat.

For United States Senator the early returns were too close to hazard a forecast. At anti-prohibition quarters it was asserted that prohibition had been defeated more than two to one.

Michigan.
DETROIT, Nov. 3.—Scattering returns late tonight indicated that at least eleven Republican congressmen have been elected in Michigan, and the two Progressive congressmen defeated for reelection.

Frank E. Doremus, Democrat, appeared certain of reelection. Samuel W. W. Beakes, Democrat, was running a close race for reelection with Bark F. Bacon, Republican.

Democrats Leading in Massachusetts.
BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Governor David I. Walsh, Democrat, was leading according to returns from three-quarters of the State in today's election but it was uncertain whether the Democrats again had obtained other places on the State ticket.

Congressional figures were slow in coming in. Early returns indicated little change in the complexion of the Massachusetts delegation.

Sullivan Safe in Illinois.
CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—At 11 o'clock tonight indications pointed with practical certainty to the election of Roger Sullivan, Democrat, for the United States Senate.

Election of 16 Republican congressmen in the State, including the two at large, was claimed by John C. Everman, secretary of the Republican national congressional committee.

Arizona.
PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 3.—Partial returns from most of the fifteen counties in the State indicate the defeat of prohibition. Ralph Cameron, Republican candidate for governor, appears to be leading.

Senator Mark Smith, Democrat, was re-elected. Carl Hayden, Democrat, re-elected congressman at large.

Rhode Island.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 3.—R. Livingston Beckman, Republican, had a lead of nearly 5,000 votes over his Democratic opponent for governor, Patrick P. Quinn, with returns from one-third of the State at hand tonight.

Wisconsin.
MILWAUKEE, Nov. 3.—Emanuel L. Phillips (Republican) of Milwaukee today defeated Judge John C. Karel, (Democrat) Milwaukee, for governor of Wisconsin by a plurality estimated at 25,000.

Connecticut.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 3.—Returns from one-fourth of the towns in Connecticut indicate a Republican sweep. Brandegee, Republican, has a substantial lead over Baldwin, Democrat, for United States Senator.

Back to Republicans.
MANCHESTER, N. H., Nov. 3.—New Hampshire today abandoned the Democratic regime of the past two years, electing a Republican governor, Rolland H. Spaulding.

Virginia.
RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 3.—All Democratic Congressmen in Virginia were re-elected.

Has Drawn Sword In An Unholy Cause

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Aga Khan, known as the spiritual head of the Mohan, vedans in India, East Africa and Central Asia, has addressed to the Moslems in British dominions a communication expressing deep sorrow that Turkey has lost her position as the trustee of Islam, having drawn her sword in an unholy cause. The duty of Moslems, he says, is to remain loyal to their temporal and secular allegiance. Turkey's act, continues the message, is not the free will of the sultan, but the will of the German officers and other non-Moslems who have forced him to do their bidding.

If war is hell, the preachers have an object lesson at the present time that ought to add them in getting a lot of folks started the other way.

The way some girls attract men of a certain brand reminds one of the way buzzards hang around carrion.

PALMETTO THEATRE

TODAY'S PROGRAM

"TOO MUCH UNCLE" "GAMBLER'S REFORMATION"
Two-reel Vitagraph. Comic Kalem. Drama

"WANTED A CAR"
Lubin. Comedy.
The management advises that this is the best series of pictures presented in some time.

THE IMPERIAL MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY will present:

"TOO MANY BABIES"
A Splendid Comedy

Come Friday and see "The Perils of Pauline"

HOLLANDER WILL BE LOCATED HERE SOON

WHOLESALE FLOWER PLANT IS PLANNED

WITH MR. SMITH

Interesting Visitor to Anderson Told of Things Going on in His Native Land.

That Anderson will soon be a wholesale distributing point for flowers to all parts of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia is the statement made following the arrival of Y. Van Staaldijnen in Anderson last night. This gentleman came to Anderson as a representative of a well known flower and bulb concern of Lissee, Holland, and has agreed to form a partnership with Furman Smith, the well known wholesale seedman of Anderson. They will embark in the business on a large scale and will operate throughout three of the Southern States.

The visitor has been in America for only three weeks and he tells some very interesting stories about things going on in his country. He says that Holland fears absorption at the hands of Germany although his country is well able to cope with the attack of the enemy, should it ever come. "The sympathies of the greater portion of my people are with the Allies," says Mr. Staaldijnen, "for we believe the violation of the neutrality of Belgium was a crime for which Germany will be held to account and her armies will be conquered before the war is over."

He says that the German army must not be discounted; that it is a wonderful machine and that it will take months and months of weary fighting to subdue the Germans if it is ever done. He thinks that the war will certainly continue for two years or possibly longer, although he believes that the Allies will eventually win.

Mr. Staaldijnen says that there are hundreds of thousands of Belgians, homeless and without food, in Holland and on their way to that country and that the people of his country are doing their very best to take care of the countless throngs coming into Holland every day. Formerly his country bought food stuff from Russia, according to the visitor, but they have now resorted to the United States and are obtaining the bulk of their supplies from this country.

The foreigner says that if Germany wins an effort will certainly be made to absorb not only Belgium but Denmark and Holland as well. He says, however, that the tallest German he ever saw was but a few inches more than six feet tall and that it will be a comparatively simple matter to cope with them. All the people of Holland will try to get to Amsterdam and then the gates to the Dykes will be opened. Holland is nine feet below the sea level and when the gates are opened the country will be leveled with the sea. If no German is nine feet tall, then they must all be drowned.

Mr. Staaldijnen will leave Anderson this morning for Greenville and the friends he has made in this city will look forward to his return and will welcome him as a permanent resident of Anderson.

Change

Will Take Place in the Schedules on Piedmont & Northern Lines

Next Sunday.

It has been learned in Anderson that a number of changes will be made in the schedule on the Piedmont and Northern line next Sunday. The Anderson division will be effected as well as other portions of the line, but just what changes will take place has not yet been determined.

It was learned last night from an authoritative source that the article published in The Intelligencer yesterday morning concerning the Pullman cars and the chair cars being taken off the P. and N. is correct. These cars will be laid off next Sunday and it is not presumed that they will be operated again before next summer.

Anderson people are in hopes that there will be but little change made in the present schedule of the electric road, since the present facilities for getting to and from Anderson are as good as local people could desire.

MR. FEATHERSTONE AT BETHEL CHURCH

Delivers One of the Best Addresses Ever Heard in Anderson Sunday Morning.

The address Sunday morning at Bethel Methodist church by Hon. C. C. Featherstone, of Greenwood, was one of the best ever heard in Anderson. Mr. Featherstone has a statewide reputation as an orator, and this reputation did not suffer in his address to the 300 persons who composed his audience Sunday morning. The hour for morning service at Bethel church was given over to Mr. Featherstone, who was present on invitation of the pastor, Rev. Danner.

The speaker did not confine himself to a particular subject, but his address was given mostly to a discussion of those things which make for manhood. His statement that the practical truths of Christianity applied to everyday life would solve many of the troubles to which we are heir, seemed to find a ready response in his audience. His application of the needs of boys and girls made a lasting impression on those present. "God," said the speaker, "has only made one man out of the dust of the earth. All the others have been made out of boys." Considerable merriment was caused over an answer by a little boy when asked by the speaker what God made men out of. "Sand," replied the little fellow. Judging from the use made of this article by many so-called men, it seems that this little boy must be mistaken," was the reply.

Mr. Featherstone had all the children in the audience to memorize and repeat after him the following three recipes for manhood and womanhood: 1. "Turn to the right and move forward," which is the sign over the entrance to Brooklyn bridge. 2. "Be sure you are right; then go ahead," from Davy Crockett. 3. "Cease to do evil, and learn to do well," from the Bible.

We presume that by this time it is settled that both poles have been satisfactorily discovered. After all the fuss we would like to know what lasting good has come to humanity.

Some girls handle their beaux like a postmaster sorting mail.

DAMAGED COTTON WAS SOLD BY INSPECTOR

BARBEE & COMPANY MADE THE PURCHASE

TOOK ENTIRE LOT

Twenty-Eight Bales of Cotton, Damaged by Fire on Railroad, Sold to Firm in N. C.

Representatives of a number of cotton dealers in this part of the county, including Anderson cotton buyers from other sections of North and South Carolina, came to Anderson yesterday to confer with W. G. Sears, insurance adjuster, in regard to the cotton burned several days ago while in transit to Anderson over the Charleston and Western Carolina railroad.

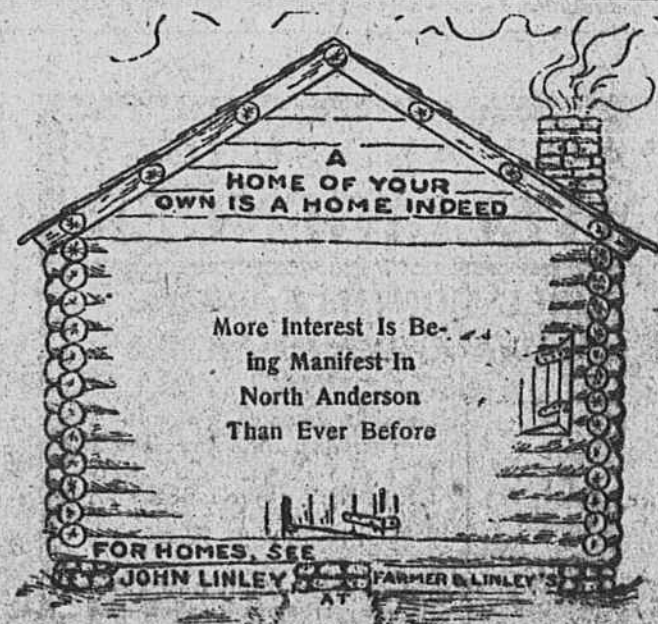

All told there were 28 bales in the shipment and the cotton was shipped from Hester, S. C., by S. J. Hester and was consigned to the cotton warehouse in this city. Only five bales were badly burned but the remainder of the cotton was damaged to some extent by the fire.

When Mr. Sears arrived, representing a certain well known transportation insurance company, he considered the bids of local buyers first, but decided that he could get more money by shipping the cotton. Finally the bid of Barbee and company, cotton dealers of Raleigh, N. C. was accepted and the cotton will be shipped to the North Carolina town at once.

It is said that the bidders were afraid to go too high in making offers for the cotton because of the fact that it was hard to determine just how much damage had been done by the water when the Anderson fire department extinguished the flames.

A single life seems a great deal to me—the loss of 10,000 is but an incident in the great European war.

It seems as if a certain few in every community imagine they are always being abused by the rest of the community.

A HOME OF YOUR OWN IS A HOME INDEED

More Interest Is Being Manifest In North Anderson Than Ever Before

FOR HOMES, SEE JOHN LINLEY & CO.

IN FACT

November bids fair to be one of the best months of 1914.

OF COURSE

This is only the first of the month, but judging from the number of people who are figuring with us now, it certainly should be a dandy month.